

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., October 10, 1876—10:30 a. m.—For the Middle States falling, followed by rising barometer, warmer westerly winds, clearing to cold northwesterly, increasing to brisk, and possibly high, and partly cloudy or cloudy weather, with probably rain areas.

ELECTION RETURNS will be received at this office to-night.

FOURTH WARD CLUB.—The Tilden and Hendricks Club of the Fourth ward, met last night at the Friendship Lodge House with S. C. Neale in the chair and John T. Sweezy, Secretary.

Mr. J. B. Smoot, a candidate for the State Senate, was present, said that it had been reported that he was elected to the present city charter, and he expected he would seek to repeal that instrument. If elected he would take no step in that direction, unless he was requested by the people of Alexandria. If they were satisfied to live under the present charter he was.

Various arrangements were made for the coming torchlight procession, and the meeting adjourned.

Much enthusiasm is exhibited in the ward, and every effort is being made to have a first rate turnout of voters on the 18th inst.

A RELIGIOUS LARK.—A drover who had imbibed too freely of spirituous liquors was arrested last night, at the upper end of King street, for disorderly conduct, and singing, at the top of his voice, the well known hymn, "O, how I love Jesus." When carried to the station house he vented his indignation at what he regarded as an outrage and wanted to know what kind of city this was where a man could not sing hymns on the streets. He also expressed a rather unfavorable opinion of the Mayor's Christianity, and proposed to sing him a hymn, which pleasure, however, was promptly declined.

LOUDOUN COUNTY COURT.—The October term of the Loudoun County Court commenced and terminated yesterday. No business of importance was transacted. A conservative meeting was held, at which able and effective addresses were delivered by Col. Holliday and Capt. Foster. Col. Holliday's speech is spoken of as one of the most convincing arguments ever delivered, and at its close members of the Society of Friends who have heretofore voted the republican ticket introduced themselves to him and expressed their determination of doing what they could to secure the election of Tilden and Hendricks.

THE INTERNAL REVENUE CHANGE.—The late troubles of the liquor dealers have been, at least, partially settled by the assignment to duty here, as Gauger, of W. G. Brown, lately of Staunton, and furnishing him with the necessary stamps. It is also reported that Mr. Fountain Beatty, who has been assigned to duty as Deputy Collector for this end of the District, will locate his office here, and thus prevent a great deal of the trouble which was anticipated.

BORN ON THE ROAD.—A man and his wife who said they had walked all the way from New York and were bound to Richmond, stopped at the station house eight days ago, and waited at the station house for a Mr. Wm. Smith's, on the telephone that the woman was taken ill, and this morning gave birth to a fine healthy girl. Mr. Smith, although himself a poor man, made the poor woman as comfortable as possible.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge E. M. Lowe presiding.—Continuation of Yesterday's Proceedings.—George W. Staton vs. George W. Staton; debt; case given to jury, and verdict for plaintiff.

J. H. Claws vs. J. A. Cunningham et al.; case and attachment; jury waived and judgment by the court for plaintiff.

The usual adjournments were made to jurors. Court adjourned until Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock.

RADICALS AT LANGLEY.—A radical meeting came off as per announcement, at Langley, Fairfax county, on Saturday night, but the "distinguished speakers" announced failed to appear. A. M. Ward, of the Treasury Department, Jas. Q. Lurman and others addressed the meeting, however, and resolutions endorsing Hayes and Wheeler and L. C. O'Neal were adopted.

FAST TRAIN.—A fast excursion train from Atlanta, Ga., to Philadelphia passed through here to-day at 12:45, having made the trip from Lynchburg to this city in five hours and forty-five minutes, including stoppages. The train was to reach Philadelphia at 3:30 this evening. The train left Atlanta at eight o'clock yesterday morning.

By a change of schedule the steamer Keyport will hereafter arrive at 8:20 p. m.

2ND SECOND 2ND
2ND GRAND COMBINATION 2ND

Local Brevities.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. Janney & Co., of their new store at the corner of King and Royal streets. The store has been handsomely refitted, and the stock of medicines, &c., increased. Mr. C. J. W. Summers, who is in charge, is a most competent and courteous druggist.

Benjamin H. Bryan, formerly a letter carrier, has been indicted, and is on trial in Washington, for embezzlement, to wit: That on the 13th of March, 1875, he did secretly a certain letter, addressed "The Churchman," Alexandria, Va., and which did contain a certain money postal order for $3.

Judge J. T. Mackey, of South Carolina, who, though a radical, is taking such a pronounced stand against the outrageous proceedings of his party in that State, married the daughter of the late Richard B. Lloyd, of this city.

The cannon firing heard this morning, about eleven o'clock, was supposed to be the salutes consequent upon a change of commanders at the Washington Navy Yard.

Mrs. Maria Sullivan fell down the steps of a house on Washington street, to-day, and broke her arm. She received the necessary surgical attendance.

The radicals are to have a mass meeting at their new flag pole on South St. Asaph street to-night.

A marriage license was granted in Washington, yesterday, to Wm. S. O'Neal and Nellie S. Ashley, of Luray, Page county, Va.

Commander J. H. Gillis, U. S. N., has been recommended for promotion to captain.

The young man Walker, who was badly hurt on the Midland road last week, is improving.

It is thought that the boating season on the canal will close earlier this season than usual.

Mr. Henry Schwarz, manager of the great combination store has just returned, and is now getting ready for a second grand auction sale. For particulars see his advertisement.

A CLERGYMAN'S OPINION.—Having had an opportunity to test the excellent qualities of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, I hesitate not to say, in my family, the Rev. Wm. H. Chapman, Pastor M. E. Church, Georgetown, D. C.

SYMPTOMS.—Slight pain in the side, the skin and eyes assume a thick yellow color, digestion is impaired, an unpleasant sinking sensation at the pit of the stomach is experienced, the bowels are irregular, the mind fretful, the memory weakened, sometimes a slight cough, coldness of the hands and feet, sometimes loss of appetite and at others unnatural craving for food, dizziness of the head, depressed spirits, feeling of uncertainty, of having lost something, undue, but can't tell what it is. Take Simmonds' Liver Regulator, it will remove all unpleasant feelings and make you well.

Please test Eureka Tooth Powder every way and see its superiority over all; no matter the price, it still has the lead and will remain there.

COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET. October 10.—The market continues active and firm, and though the actual sales show a slight falling off on yesterday's prices, it is on account of the quality of the offerings. Wheat is in good receipt, and sales of 1700 bushels were made at 108 1/2, and to quality. Receipts of Corn have been considerably increased, and upwards of 900 bushels sold to-day at 53 for yellow, and 53 and 51 for mixed. Rye and Oats quiet, with sales of the latter at 37 and 38.
